

No. 337 of 25th November 2022

For the academic year 2023/2024, the Saint Camillus International University of Health Sciences competition for admission to the first year of the Single Cycle English-language Master's Degree Course in Medicine and Surgery.

A total of 225 (two hundred and twenty-five) places are available for non-EU candidates residing abroad.

This number may change following the decisions made in the Decree of the Ministry for Universities and Research (MUR) in accordance with Italian Law No. 264 of 2 August 1999. The MUR Decree may confirm, increase or reduce the number of posts indicated in this notice. The University will make the relevant Ministerial Decree accessible on its website.

Otizens of Norway, Iceland, Liechtenstein, the Swiss Confederation, the Republic of San Marino and the Holy See will be treated as EU candidates and should apply through the relevant notice of call. The same also applies to categories that in accordance with Article 26 of Italian Law No. 189 of 30 July 2002, as amended may access Courses on equal terms with Italian students.

Candidates who wish to take the examination for admission to the Degree in Medicine and Surgery must meet one of the following requirements:

possession of a secondary school diploma allowing entrance to university, issued by a state or state-authorised educational institution of the Italian school system in Italy or abroad;

a secondary school leaving certificate from an institution in a foreign scholastic system located in Italy or abroad, obtained after at least 12 years of schooling;

a school leaving certificate obtained from a scholastic system requiring 10 or 11 years of schooling supplemented by one or two years of university, on condition that all the examinations required for those academic years have been passed.

Candidates enrolled in the last year of secondary school at state and state-authorised educational institutions of the Italian school system or at a foreign secondary school institution that provides a qualification valid for admission to the higher education courses of the Italian system may also apply, provided that they then obtain the study qualification by the last date available for enrolment for the academic year 2023/2024, failing which they may not rely on the results of the admission test.

Students already in possession of an academic qualification (obtained in Italy or abroad) and those transferring from another degree course are required to follow the same procedures indicated in this notice and to take the relative admission test.

For candidates who have completed or are enrolled in the last year necessary to obtain a secondary school diploma from a foreign secondary school, the foreign certificates will be considered valid, provided they are accompanied by the Declaration of Value issued by the Italian diplomatic offices.

Candidates who are not in possession of a suitable qualification or who do not present one within the terms indicated below, in accordance with current legislation, will lose the right of enrolment or will be deregistered if already enrolled, without the right to refund of any payments already made to this University for any reason.

With reference to the recognition of foreign qualifications, the University will take into account Procedures for the entry, stay and registration of foreign/international students on higher education courses in Italy for the academic year 2022-2023 (http://www.studiare-in-italia.it/studentistranieri).

The University will make available of ancillary seminars for the medical profession (the accessible on an exclusive basis. Although they are not part of the academic curriculum nor subject to examination, they are considered by the University to be extremely useful for training purposes. Access to the ancillary courses will take (p)-RG(llars2(llar(ie)8(ri)14(e 61. RG(.27)-31B5D9y RG(.26h))

In case of difficulties in registering for the competition, you can send an email to relations@unicamillus.org to request assistance.

The admission test for the Single Cycle Master's Degree in Medicine and Surgery is divided into two parts (Written test and Oral test).

The written test, entirely in English, must be taken between 23 January 2023 and 10 February 2023; the oral test must be taken between 30 January and 14 February 2023.

The University reserves the right to change the dates, times, locations and methods of the admission test and publication of the results if deemed useful by the University for organisational reasons and/or by Ministerial order. This will be done through the publication of notices on the University's website, which is the only official communication channel of this University.

In the event of a postponement provided that it was decided before the expiry date for registration for the admission test—the University may postpone the deadline for the submission of applications and, if necessary, change the other dates of this Notice of Call, by posting a notice on the University's website, which is the only official communication channel of this University.

Ø

The written test is the computer-

Ø

The oral interview which will take place in English and electronically will test the candidate's knowledge of the following topics: general culture, notions of biology, chemistry, physics and mathematics.

The overall assessment of the oral exam ranges from a minimum of 0 to a maximum of 69 points.

Withdrawal from studies is deemed to be completed with the issue of the relevant release document. This document will only be issued to students who, at the time of application, have complied with the payment of the envisaged fees and contributions.

In the event of renunciation or transfer, amounts already paid up to the time of submission of the relevant application will not be refunded under any circumstances by the University under any circumstances, not even if the student does not attend the Seminars offered by the University.

Outgoing transfer consent and the issuance of the relevant documentation may only be granted to students who, on the date of application, have paid all relevant academic contributions, fees and stamps.

In any case, a student who abandons studies after the start of classes is required to pay all the fees and contributions stipulated in the Fees and Contributions Regulations for the academic year in which he or she has enrolled, readily available on the University website at the following link https://www.unicamillus.org/it/regolamenti/.

Pursuant to prevailing legislation, the University reserves the right to verify the truthfulness of the declarations made by the candidate at any stage of the enrolment process. The candidate must therefore provide all the necessary elements to allow for the appropriate verifications. If false or misleading declarations are found in the documentation submitted by the candidate, without prejudice to the sanctions provided for by the Oriminal Code and the special laws on the subject and the exposure of the declarant to action for damages by the interested parties, any enrolment will be cancelled, any benefits granted will be recovered and any university fees and contributions paid will be withheld and not refunded under any circumstances.

The University reserves the right to change the location of placements both in the region and outside the region and the mode of delivery of the courses, should it be deemed useful for organisational reasons and/or health safety requirements, by publishing notices on the University's website, which is the University's only official communication channel.

For legal and interpretative purposes, only the Notice of Call approved by Rector's Decree No. 337/22 shall apply; it is drawn up in Italian and available on file at the teaching secretary's office, with a true copy available on request.

For all matters not provided for in this Notice of Call, please refer to the University's Articles of