Article 2

Guiding principles

UniCamillus University - Saint Camillus International University of Health Sciences recognises personal data protection as a fundamental right of the individual and pursues primary objectives such as training and qualified teaching, inspired by the principles of tolerance, non-discrimination, respect for others, appreciation of different realities and inclusiveness, also in terms of gender identity, when carrying out its institutional activities, in compliance with the legal and documentary framework referred to in Article 1 of the present Regulation.

In this perspective, with the aim of promoting the physical, psychological and relational well-being of all those who study and work at UniCamillus University, the University guarantees that they can live in a peaceful environment, careful to protect the individual's privacy and dignity, implementing the principles of freedom, inviolability of the person and the right to registered identity.

For purposes indicated in this Article, UniCamillus University aims to implement protection measures for those who express the will to activate an Alias Career, in line with the inspiring principles of its Code of Ethics and in deference to the prohibition of discriminatory behaviour, also expressly sanctioned in the Disciplinary Code for University Students.

Article 3

Subject of the Regulation

This Regulation governs the activation and management of the Alias Career at UniCamillus University.

the end of a gender transition process, in compliance with Law no. 164 of April 14, 1982, and subsequent amendments and integrations.

Article 4 Recipients

Those who do not recognise themselves in their own registered identity may apply to UniCamillus University for the activation of an Alias Career and choose a name of their own choice, according to the procedures indicated in this Regulation, in line with the provisions of the previous Article 2 and in compliance with the principle of self-determination.

The activation of an Alias Career may be requested by all those who take part in the university community; this option is therefore not limited to students but may also concern teaching staff, technical-administrative staff, management, contract lecturers, collaborators, external members, collegiate bodies and all those who work in the University structures in various capacities, even occasionally and temporarily.

UniCamillus University may also authorise the temporary recognition of an Alias identity in favour of University guests, who carry out activities of a temporary nature (e.g.: during seminars, conferences and/or other initiatives).

Article 5 Request for the activation of the Alias Career

Activation of the Alias Career can be requested by the subjects indicated in Article 3 of this Regulation, by submitting, without any particular formality, an application accompanied by a valid identity document to the following email address: pari.opportunità@unicamillus.org.

Should the applicant belong to the student population, the application can also be submitted online directly on the GOMP by accessing his or her personal area.

The University, in the person of the Rector as the pro-tempore Legal Representative, or through the so- Representatives/Tutors

No supporting documentation is required for the activation of the Alias Career, except for the submission of the application referred to in Paragraph 1 of this Article.

The assignee of the Alias Career is guaranteed the use of his/her own alternative identity (so called Alias) for any act and/or activity within the University, while the reverberation of effects is absolutely excluded in acts having external legal relevance.

Article 9 Representatives/Tutors

In order to ensure a correct, prompt and timely fulfilment of all implementation requirements of this Regulation, in the main interest of the Alias Career assignees and in compliance with the Guidelines of the National Conference of Equality Bodies of Italian Universities, UniCamillus University deems it appropriate to formally provide for two (no. 2) delegates appointed by the Rector: one academic Representative/Tutor, selected among the teaching staff, and one administrative Representative/Tutor, selected among the tno. mit 0(a841.595.32 8two)-697(v695.32 5u.18 5

Article 10

Badge and use of the Alias name to the first name of the applicant, should the application be accepted, following the signing of the Confidentiality Agreement.

The Representatives/Tutors shall inform the interested party of the activation of the badge conforming to the Alias, as well as the procedures for picking up and collecting it.

Article 11

Rights related to the Alias identity

Once the Alias identity has been obtained, the assignee of the Alias identity may carry out any activity within UniCamillus University, using the preferred name in lieu of his/her personal name.

Article 12

Certifications

Certifications issued by UniCamillus University for external use refer exclusively to the registered identity of the person assigned the Alias.

In implementing the provisions of the above Paragraph, UniCamillus University cannot produce any statement or certification regarding the Alias Career.

All acts of the career shall be understood as referring to the legally recognised registered identity and thus the certificates shall be issued and the graduation parchment shall be drawn up, should the assignee of the Alias Career be a student, who obtains the final degree of his/her course of studies, without a final sentence of the gender reassignment Court.

Article 13

Duties/responsibilities related to the Alias Career

As reiterated several times in this Regulation, the Alias Career can only be used within UniCamillus University in order to benefit from the services it provides and for which the badge, for those in possession of it, is valid as an identification document.

The Alias Career is permanently linked to the one referring to the applicant's legally recognised registered identity and remains active for the entire duration of the latter, except in the case of requests for interruption and/or cases of deactivation due to breach of the obligations, pursuant to Article 13.

The Alias career shall be deactivated and the career registry shall be updated on the basis of the operative part of the aforementioned judgement, in the event of a final judgement by virtue of which, pursuant to and for the purposes of the laws in force, the applicant is attributed a different gender from the one stated in the birth certificate.

Any statement must necessarily refer to the applicant's legally recognised registered identity, in lieu of certification or notarial fact, regarding personal statuses and qualities related to the university career, signed by the person awarded the Alias Career and in accordance with D.P.R. no. 445/2000.

The assignee of the Alias Career undertakes to immediately inform UniCamillus University, through the Representatives/Tutors referred to in Article 8 of the present Regulation, about acts/facts/statuses and, more generally, any situation which may affect the content and validity of the Confidential Agreement referred to in Article 6 of the present Regulation.

The applicant also undertakes to inform the Representatives/Tutors referred to in Article 8 of the present Regulation, in advance and in a timely manner, of any intention to perform acts within the University, which have or may have external relevance, in order to verify in advance whether and how it is possible to follow up on his/her intentions through the use of the provisionally assigned Alias identity.

Article 14 Breach of duties related to the Alias Career

Should the Representatives/Tutors referred to in Article 8 discover a possible breach of the Confidentiality Agreement referred to in Article 6 or, more generally, of the provisions of this Regulation, Representatives/Tutors will promptly inform the competent University Offices in order to take any possible consequent decisions, including, by way of example, the precautionary suspension of the Alias identity, pending any further investigations on the matter.

The Alias Career must
